EX LIBRIS

This covered bridge has been in Madison County for many years. As it endures so does our education.

These bridges were built so that pioneers could have easy access to the fertile lands which lay beyond the rivers. In much the same way education makes opportunities more abundant through a better use of our minds on the road of life. On a road that must cross a river many difficulties would arise if it were not for the aid of the bridges. Much the same applies on the road of life, with education as the bridge to help us over the difficult times and rough spots.

As we look back through the years and through the pages of our old annual we will realize that education like a bridge is a symbol of the pioneer spirit of America.

Dedication

The annals of no academic institution are written by students, teachers and administrators alone. In addition, there are those who after hours, give unselfishly of their leisure and energy with little or no compensating returns. So it is with the policy-making body of this school, our Board of Education. We the Boomerang Staff dedicate this yearbook to the School Board of the Winterset Independent School District.

History

On September 5, 1950, with a frightened look upon their faces, 92 freshmen entered the doors of W.H.S. Their official motto was, and still is, "Life is 10% what you make it, and 90% how you take it."

They worked and they worked hard, and proved themselves able to keep up with the upper classmen. They went "all out" for football, basketball, chorus, band, dramatics, not forgetting to try for the honor roll.

In the school year of '51--52 there were 82 sophmores back once more to the halls of W.H.S. They were now one step higher on the ladder toward graduation.

As records show, their class participated and did well in extra curricular activities. Two boys and two girls were on the Hi-Y and Y-Teen cabinet, and four girls were members of the F.H.A. cabinet. They again showed up in great numbers in band, chorus, dramatics, and athletics.

In the school year of '52--53, 78 students entered W.H.S. as juniors. They were finally upper-classmen, but they tried not to be snobbish about it.

The Junior Class Play that year was "Men Are Like Street Cars." 16 juniors had speaking parts, and many more helped backstage.

During this year 20 juniors participated in band, including 5 twirlers, and 20 sang in the chorus. There were 4 boys in "W" club, 4 out for track, 4 boys participating in basketball, and 6 in football. There were also 6 girls who showed outstanding ability in girls' basketball.

Their class entertained the seniors at the banquet and prom, in May, and they were all looking forward to being entertained themselves, the next spring.

The junior year came hilariously to an end, and the summer passed, with each day going, too, too, fast.

In September, 1953, 68 students entered W.H.S. to reign as the mighty Seniors, and to be rulers of the fabulous "Lower Hall."

5 senior boys were on the varsity football squad, 14 played in the band, 3 girls played on the girls' basketball team, 5 boys played basketball, and 7 sang in the chorus.

Homecoming 1953 was on October 16, and Mary Louise Bane reigned as their queen.

Several senior girls who were interested in teaching, attended the Prospective Teacher's Day, at Drake University, early in the fall.

The All-School Play that year was "I Love Lucy," starring Jean Ann Lull as the active red-headed Lucy.

The class of 1954 has proved itself to rank very superior among the classes graduating from W.H.S., and they want to express their thanks to all of the teachers, and other students who have helped them through these past four years.

GERALD RIDOUT and LARRY TRAVIS have just succeeded in leveling New York City. They have been competing scientists for twenty years.

LOREN PARKER is manager of the "Moon Beam Beauty Shop", and his favorite customer is 'JEANIE with the Light Brown Hair'.

DICK JACKSON is the successful manager of the local telephone exchange. JANICE VEE CLARK is in charge of all operators. Number Plee--uz!!

LARRY BREEDING is now coaching girls basketball at Bev's Junior High. That's coaching, not coaxing.

JANIE MACUMBER is still going to Notre Dame. Some one should tell her that it's an all-boys school.

A flash has just come through! The first woman president of the United States has just been announced. SHARON BENJAMIN won out over FRANK DAHLY. Sharon kissed the boys instead of the babies. Take a tip, Frank.

JACK WALLACE is suing GENE for dog beating. BILL KOEHN is Jack's attorney.

Out on the Podunk Desert reservation Big Chief Sitting KINKENNON is head of the tribe. JIM CROSSER is top man on the totem pole. ED HARRELL is bottom man. Takes some one strong to hold it up.

MAX DAY is now assistant vice-janitor of the Penney's Dept. Store. He is better known now as J. C. Day.

Bulldozer BRUETT is now boxing in the Silver Mittens Tournaments. His next opponent is Poinsetta PALMER. That ought to be a real thriller!'

DORA LEMON is pushing the green button that opens the red door that turns on the big orange machine that prints pink po-ke-dots on black ties. INEZ SNYDER helps her when she gets tired.

JIM FREDRICKS is hi-way patrolman of Bell Gardens. He decided it's more fun to chase than to be chased. How about it Jim??

BETTY MORSE is in Indiana learning how to fly. Her instructor is Donny Loomis. Does the name ring a bell, Betty?

WAYNE CURNES is city water commisioner. He is going to see that there is more water put in the chlorine.

If you're looking for a parrot that can't talk, go to JANIS BURD'S pet shop. The parrots never learned to talk because they've never had a chance to get a word in edgewise.

BESSIE McCARTHY is running a lonely hearts club. Her most steady customer is LARRY THORPE.

GARY HOWELL is training animals. He is widely known for his horn blowing seals.

ROBERT MOUNT has replaced Arthur Godfrey on his talent scout show. That red hair sure shows up good on color T. V. His latest discovery is MARGE GROUT.

RUTH CROFT was discovered by a Hollywood talent scout while working in the dime store in Winterset. She is now in Hollywood-----Still working in a dime store.

DUANE GUNTER has replaced Arthur Murray in his dance studio. Duane always was light on his feet.

KENNY McNICHOLS is head surgeon at the Memorial Hospital. He always was quite a cut-up. MARY JANE DETRICK is now in charge of the Nurses' Aids, at the hospital.

MARLENE WORM is playing opposite Captain Video of the Video Rangers. PAT TRAVIS also is on the show. She blows the smoke from the tails of the rocket ships.

PAUL FLETCHER is now running Fletcher's Portrait Shop. BEV. McADOW is his assistant. They seem to enjoy working in the dark room.

IRENE CLARKSON is working in an office specializing in dictaphones. No, that's phoning Dick.

SHERI WYATT, SHARON WILKINSON, LOUISE MURPHY, and EVELYN MITCHELL are on the assembly line in a pea factory. Wyatt shells them, Murphy sorts them, and Mitchell puts them in the cans. Wilkinson stands over them with a whip to see that they keep busy.

SUZANNE NULL is a leading socialite in New York City. Her latest competitor is MARY KAY CUNNINGHAM. At the latest count Mary Kay was ahead by one mink.

JOE HAMAND and GLENN McCONNELLY are now singing with DON COFFMAN'S Rag Time Band. They are opening now at ED WALTZ'S Night Club.

DAWN HEADLUND, DOROTHY CLEMENTS, and JACKIE BEARD are in the chorus line at the Cococabana. MARVIN FAIRHOLM is their dance instructor.

NORMA WIGHT, and MARIAN VELTMAN are running a taxi-cab service between Ames and Cedar Falls. Seems as though they never get any where, for arguing which way to go.

LOLA COX is running a bakery. She bakes the cakes and PEGGY EICHNER keeps the customers from slamming the door.

IMOGENE VLIEGER and PHYLLIS MOORE are making the alphabets for alphabet soup. Don't get your P's and Q's mixed up girls.

DIANE DUNCAN and KAY WHITE are running a mechanics school. They are teaching the students how to assemble a kiddie car.

JACK STEVENS is training fleas for ED MORRISSEY'S three ring flea circus. Don't let them get the best of you Jack.

BEULAH BEEDLE is running a sea side resort. VERYL RUGGLES is chief handy man.

The image of the magic mirror is slowly fading away, as we see the queen of the Hawaiian Islands. MARY LOUISE BANE, doing the hula.

Will

WE, THE CLASS OF 1954, being of sound mind and perfect judgment, do bequeath the following:
To Mr. Miller, we leave our thanks for his efficient guidance.
To the juniors, we leave the lower hall--or what's left of it.
To the sophomores we leave the joy of being upper classmen and bowing only to the seniors
To the freshmen, we leave the request that they always remember the class of 1954 who sheltered and protected them with loving kindness in their first year at W.H.S.
JANIE MACUMBER leaves her ability to make strange noises to anyone with the nerve to duplicate them.
BILL KOEHN leaves his Ford to the Williams girls. Just cut the top off girls.
JEAN ANN LULL leaves and silence reigns in the lower hall!!
JIM FREDRICK wills his curly hair and rosy complexion to anyone lucky enough to inherit them.
LARRY THORPE just leaves--with his convertible, of course.
DUANE GUNTER wills his basketball suit to Kenneth Witham and Jim Vlieger. There's room for both.
MARIAN VELTMAN leaves her Light 'n Bright bottle to Twyla Hoeness. What?????????????
DICK JACKSON wills his baby talk to Cliff Johnson. That means knee pants, Cliff.
LARRY BREEDING leaves his football ability to Wayne Brittain.
PEGGY EICHNER leaves her bashful ways to Maralyn Fuller. Just act shy, Maralyn, and you'll get by.
MARY LOUISE BANE leaves her throne, crown, and happy smile to the lucky girl next year.
EDDIE HARRELL leaves his bright remarks in merchandising to-----wait, on second thought Mr. Humphrey would rather he'd take them with him.
PHYLLIS MOORE and IMOGENE VLIEGER leave their solid friendship to Marilyn Farlow and Bev Glasscock, who already have a good start.
SHARON BENJAMIN is trying to leave but can't find the door. Put on your glasses, Sharon.
JANICE VEE CLARK leaves the following advice to the girls. Men are just in the way but what girl wants to go out of her way!
GERALD RIDOUT, who knows more about more and less about less, wills his yen for arguing to Dennie Baur--not that he needs it.
LOREN PARKER leaves his reputation as W.H.S. romeo to Jim Callison. There must be some mistake.
GENE WALLACE leaves his height to Earl Binns. Now won't that be a big help!
BEV McADOW wills her nimble typing fingers to Chancey Black who we hear is still using the hunt and peck system.
DONALD KINKENNON leaves his formula for sleeping in class to Jack Baker. No snoring, Jack.
MAX NEWBURY wills his soft voice to Stephen Good. That'll be a relief.
LARRY (EINSTEIN) TRAVIS leaves his chemistry set to Paul Welch. Watch out!!!
DON COFFMAN takes his love for Bird watching with him--B-u-r-d that is.
EDDY MORRISSEY leaves Jane Webster to stand in the upper hall and talk to herself.
Year before last some studious ability was willed to Duane Allison and since Duane didn't use much of it he passed it on to Wayne Curnes. Since Wayne didn't use any of it we'll just drop the whole matter.
JACKIE BEARD wills her roller skates to anyone with pillows.
MARLENE WORM leaves with a sigh of relief.
JANIS BURD leaves her ability to make a situation sound twice as good as it really is to Marilyn Lamb. Be careful, Marilyn.
BEULAH BEEDLE leaves her wisecracks to John and Jerry Williams. There's plenty for both.
ED WALTZ the confirmed woman hater leaves to star on his own radio program "That's Life Without a Wife."
IRENE CLARKSON and DIANE DUNCAN will leave their love for writing notes to anyone who will sit in the first two rows in merchandising next year.
LOLA COX wills her good behavior to Marge Anderson who will be glad of the chance to get it.
DOROTHY CLEMENTS leaves her basketball suit to any girl on the A squad next year.
MAX (J.C. Penney) DAY wills his brilliant sports shirts to Lewie Haines. That should wow the girls, Lewie, RUTH CROFT leaves her sweet personality to all the girls at W.H.S.
JIM CROSSER leaves nothing because if he did there wouldn't be anything left for Jim.
FRANK DAHLY leaves his love for making speeches to anyone who breaks out in a cold sweat at the thought of it.
MARY JANE DETRICK leaves her collection of size 4 1/2 shoes to Bob Young. Wear them, Bob, we dare you!

GAILEN PALMER leaves with a few parting words, "As long as there's anything left to say, I'll say it!"

VERYL RUGGLES wills his ability to run stop lights--on the main drag, no less--to anyone who wants an early grave.

BETTY MORSE leaves her job in the office to any merchandising student who wants a two-day weekend next year.

Looking over what is left after the class graduates, we decided that in all probability, GARY HOWELL should leave a little bit of knowledge to the new seniors.

EVELYN MITCHELL leaves a needle and thread along with her sewing technique to the girls in basketball next year for use in case of an emergency.

MARVIN FAIRHOLM leaves all his girl friends--all none of them.

INEZ SNYDER leaves her glasses to anyone who needs them. They also have a guarantee--things start whirling.

DAWN HEADLUND and DORA LEMON leave their seats in "social problems" to any social problem next year.

KAY WHITE leaves for Marysville, Missouri. We warned them she's coming!

MERLE BRUETT leaves his "calf lick" to Eddie Lathrum. Be sure to let the calf lick it every morning, Eddie.

JACK STEVENS leaves for Des Moines where his interests are!

GLENN McCONNELEE wills his dreamy voice to Harold Seward. Ah, come on, Harold, try!

JOE HAMAND leaves his cute giggle to Gayla Fletcher. A little softer, Gayla.

MARGE GROUT leaves her opening comments in bookkeeping to anyone with a bright mind at 8:45 in the morning.

SHARON WILKINSON and SHERI WYATT leave their striped shirts, bow ties and cuff links to any two girls who want to dress alike next year.

NORMA WIGHT leaves her year-round tan to the Day girls. You have to get "well done" first girls.

KENNETH McNICHOLS leaves his ability to drive with one hand to Larry Huff who ought to have learned by now.

ROBERT MOUNT leaves the gleam of his red hair in the lower hall.

LOUISE MURPHY wills her job at Madison County to anyone who's a pretty good jerk--soda jerk, that is.

We've been trying to convince JACK WALLACE to leave since we started this will and we've finally convinced him, so open the door.

SUZANNE NULL leaves her North Ward kindergarteners with a sigh--half regret and half relief. Pardon us, she just corrected us. All relief.

BESSIE McCARTHY leaves her glow-colored anklets to Mr. Scott. Try analyzing them, Mr. Scott.

MARY KATHERINE CUNNINGHAM leaves her straight A's to Richard Clark, not that he needs them.

PAT TRAVIS leaves her neatness to any junior with a messy locker. You mean there's a Junior with a clean locker???
